CIRCULAR

Subject:- STRICT COMPLIANCE OF COURT ORDERS IN RESPECT OF PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION OF REPORT/ PARAWISE COMMENTS AND PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

In order to maintain an effective and efficacious liaison and to overcome the communication gap between Law officers and Departments following guidelines are recommended to avoid the subject issue in future:-

- a. The comments and other relevant documents asked for by the Courts should be provided promptly, preferably within 7 days of the letter sent by the concerned law officer to the Government Department.
- b. That dealing officer of the concern Division must ensure that an additional copy of the comments and the documents are provided to the concerned law officer. It is not enough that only the Court is provided with the comments and not the Law officer as that will leave the law officer in the dark and creates unnecessary problems.
- c. That the concerned Division is responsible for preparation the report/ parawise comments according to their distribution of work.
- d. Upon Court notice, if the Hon'ble Court call the any representative of the concerned Division with the direction that not the below the rank of Additional Secretary/ Joint Secretary then the Head of the Concerned Division will be responsible to appear before the Hon'ble Court alongwith concerned dealing Section Officer.
- e. It is the duty of the concerned Division that if it is required to contact/ brief the nominated Law officer. A responsible officer not below the rank of BPS-17, well conversant with facts of the case preferably stationed near the place of hearing may be deputed to contact/brief the counsel and hand over the case papers, and file its report/ parawise comments in the court with consultation of the nominated Counsel.
