

100TH BIRTH ANNIVERSARY
DR. JAVID IQBAL (1924-2015)

دیارِ عشق میں اپنا مقام پیدا کر
نیا زمانہ نئے صبح و شام پیدا کر
خدا اگر دلِ فطرت شناس دے تجھ کو
سکوتِ لالہ و گل سے کلام پیدا کر
اٹھا نہ شیشہ گرانِ فرنگ کے احساں
سقاںِ ہند سے مینا و جام پیدا کر
میں شاخِ تاک ہوں میری غزل ہے میرا ثمر
مرے ثمر سے لالہ فام پیدا کر
مرا طریقِ امیری نہیں فقیری ہے
خودی نہ بیچِ غریبی میں نام پیدا کر

DR. JAVID IQBAL (1924 – 2015)
100th BIRTH ANNIVERSARY
COMMEMORATIVE SOUVENIR SHEET
NOVEMBER 9th, 2024

Dr. Javid Iqbal (5 October 1924 - 3 October 2015) was a philosopher and senior justice of the Supreme Court of Pakistan. He was internationally known for his acclaimed publications on philosophy of law and modern Islamic philosophy in international and national journals. He authored various books on Pakistan's movement and political ideology. Apart from philosophy, Justice Javid had a prolific career in the Judiciary of Pakistan. He was a former Chief Justice of the Lahore High Court before being elevated to the Supreme Court and also represented Pakistani delegation at the United Nations. He was awarded Hilal-i-Imtiaz by the President of Pakistan in 2004.

Dr. Javid Iqbal obtained BA (honours) degree from Government College Lahore in 1944, a masters degree in English and philosophy in 1948, and a PhD degree in philosophy from the University of Cambridge in 1954. He was the son of the poet-philosopher Allama Muhammad Iqbal. Allama Iqbal, named his book, Javid Nama, after his son. He also wrote many poems to Javid Iqbal, indirectly addressing the Muslim youth in British India. Javid Iqbal later translated two of Allama Iqbal's books into Urdu - Javid Nama and Reconstruction of religious thought in Islam. Like his great father, Dr. Javid Iqbal strove to present the 'liberal' side of Islam which was hidden in the mist of ignorance, blind following and sectarianism.

Dr. Justice Javid Iqbal has many reasons to be remembered. Throughout his long career he stood out as a prominent jurist and a liberal scholar. He was considered a man with a far-reaching legal scope of thought with judgements delivered by him touching many areas of life. But his contributions go beyond judgements delivered from the bench and his legal expertise. Dr. Javid Iqbal was also regarded as a scholar on Islamic jurisprudence. His numerous writings and books sought to decipher Allama Iqbal's vision and explain and expound the legacy of Mohammad Ali Jinnah.

Honourable Justice Javid Iqbal carved out a place for himself in the modern history of Pakistan, also reflecting on the current state of Islamic thought, society and politics and commenting on literary works. Many of his works are thought to contain important insight into the history and nature of 'ideology' in Pakistan. Dr. Javid Iqbal influenced national events in a number of different ways and he was an important figure who played a role in helping us define our culture and the place of religion in our state.

Dr. Javid Iqbal's publications include the following:

- Ideology of Pakistan (1959)
- Stray Reflections: A Note-Book of Iqbal (1961)
- Legacy of Quaid-e-Azam (1968, published in English and Urdu)
- Mai Lala Faam (1968, collection of papers on Iqbal, in Urdu)
- Zinda Rood (1984, biography of Iqbal in three volumes, in Urdu)
- Afkare-Iqbal (1994, interpretation of Iqbal's thought)
- Pakistan and the Islamic Liberal Movement (1994).
- Jahan-i-Javid : darame, Afsane, Maqale
- Islam and Pakistan's Identity
- The Concept of State in Islam : A Reassessment
- Apna Greban Chaak (autobiography) (2002)
- Khutbat e Iqbal Tasheel-o-tafheem
- Maqalat-e-Javid
